March-April, 2020.

Nobody is allowed to go out. Outside there's nobody, no cars. I can hear birds chirping. A couple of months ago we couldn't imagine such a thing. If someone had told me, I wouldn't have believed. The stillness is absolute.

However, in the dusk hours, grim thoughts and voices might come out...

CORONA CRISIS: A possible approach

The quarantine will not end. The world will never be the same!

Speaking, hugging, kissing will no longer be allowed!

The virus was created in laboratories by evil scientists!

Joggers and those who walk their dogs are plaguebearers spreading the disease!

Don't go out, you fool! Don't look out of the window!

Leaders grab power, and implement authoritarian measures! It's righteous! No reason to comply.
